

Jack Tordoff, Chairman of JCT 600 Ltd, passed away on 3 October 2021 at the age of 86 ... RIP Jack

Jack Tordoff owned one of the best known registration numbers in the north of England after which his business was named.

During a long career spanning 71 years, he built up the JCT600 business from a single workshop and petrol filling station in Bradford, which his father Edward had founded as Tordoff Motors.

JCT600 is now one of Yorkshire's greatest business success stories with 54 dealerships representing 25 of the world's leading car marques and employing a team of 2,300 people from the Northeast through Yorkshire and into Lincolnshire and Nottinghamshire. His empire of up market car franchises includes Ferrari, Aston Martin, Porsche, Bentley and Rolls Royce.

A keen rally driver, Jack was the first privateer to win an International Rally using a Porsche 911 2.7 Carrera RS Sport Lightweight on the Circuit of Ireland in 1973, a round of the European Rally Championship.
